December 9:

Board your charter motor coach and travel to the “Live Music Show Capital of the World” – Branson, Missouri. You will go directly to the hotel to check in for your three night stay. This evening you’ll enjoy dinner at McFarlains Restaurant and then we start the evening off right with Mr. Entertainment himself, Andy Williams. Then back to our hotel for a good night’s sleep.

December 10:

After enjoying a breakfast, we have the morning free to shop and explore Branson’s new $420 million project, Branson Landing. This 95 acre site on Lake Taneycomo is a magnificent shopping and entertainment complex. At noon we will board our coach and enjoy a light lunch at your next stop, Moon River Café. We are back to our rooms at the hotel to freshen up, and then we are off to our dinner cruise on the Show Boat Branson Belle. After dinner we head to see the Miracle of Christmas at the Sight and Sound Theater. Then back to our hotel for another good night’s sleep.

December 11:

After enjoying a breakfast, we will meet in the conference room for a morning devotion with Rev. Larry Ravert. Lunch will be at one of the local restaurants. We will take a scenic drive after lunch to spots around the area. Our next stop is the Shoji Tabuchi Christmas Show. After the show we are off to the Dolly Parton’s Dixie Stampede. You are in for a exciting evening of thrilling horse riding stunts, spectacular special effects, phenomenal musical productions plus a mouth-watering four-course dinner complete with a delicious dessert! Then back to our hotel for another good night’s sleep.

December 12:

After enjoying a breakfast, you’re off to the Branson Airport for your flight home or ride home on the motor coach. On the way home, we may have the opportunity to visit Alice Walton’s spectacular new American art museum, Crystal Bridges, which opens November 11 in Bentonville, Arkansas. In any case, you will have time to reflect back on all the interesting things you’ve done, the great shows you’ve seen, and wonder where your next group trip will take you!
